RELEASE AND CONSENT

1. For good and valuable consideration, including possible publicity, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the undersigned gives to Ontario Creates, its employees and representatives, permission to photograph and show the interior and/or exterior of _____ (the “Premises”), with the understanding that Ontario Creates, its successors, licensees and assigns may use these photographs, if so desired, in any and all media of any nature whatsoever, whether now known or hereafter devised, including Ontario Creates’ Location Library Database, for the purpose of promoting and advertising the Premises as possible locations for motion pictures and television productions, all without the payment of additional compensation. The present release and consent is given with full knowledge that Ontario Creates will act in reliance on this and that this is given by the undersigned irrevocably.
2. The undersigned hereby releases and forever discharges Ontario Creates and its employees and representatives from any claims, obligations or liability of every kind arising in any way out of the performance of this release and consent.
3. The undersigned warrants that he/she or it, as the case may be, is the owner or the agent for the owner of the Premises, that he/she or it, as the case may be, is fully authorized to enter into this release and consent and, further, has the right to grant to Ontario Creates all of the rights granted or provided to be so granted in this agreement.
4. Ontario Creates shall own all rights to all photographs of the Premises made by it, its employees and representatives.
